Tinicum Township Open Burning Policy

Bucks County is located in the Southeastern Pennsylvania Air Basin and in accordance with Chapter 129.24 (Open burning operations), of Pa. Department Of Environmental Protection (DEP) Agencies Rules and Regulations; open burning is prohibited in this County. There are eight (8) exceptions to these regulations:

- 1) A fire set to prevent or abate a fire hazard, when approved by the DEP and set by or under the supervision of a public officer.
- 2) Any fire set for the purpose of instructing personnel in fire fighting, when approved by the DEP.
- 3) A fire set for the prevention and control of disease or pests, when approved by the DEP.
- 4) A fire set in conjunction with the production of agricultural commodities in their unmanufactured state on the premises of the farm operation when approved by the DEP.
- 5) A fire set for the purpose of burning refuse, when the fire is on the premises of a structure occupied solely as a dwelling by two (2) families or less and when the refuse results from the normal occupancy of the structure.
- 6) A fire set solely for recreational or ceremonial purposes.
- 7) A fire set solely for cooking food.
- 8) An air curtain destructor shall be used when clearing and grubbing wastes. Each proposed use of an air curtain destructor shall be reviewed and approved by the DEP in writing with respect to equipment arrangement, design and existing environmental conditions prior to commencement of burning. For further information see Chapter 129.24 section D.

The DEP enforces these regulations. The DEP Southeast Region Office number is 484-250-2050. The 24-hour emergency number for the DEP is 484-250-5900.

Bucks County is located in the Eastern Division of Forest District #17 under the jurisdiction of the Pa. Department of Conservation and Natural Resources (DCNR). The office number is 610-582-9660

The Forest Warden for Tinicum Township is Tyler Starkey and can be reached at the Del Val Volunteer Fire Company at 610-294-9385. The warden can provide information on wildfires and billing procedures for the extinguishment of a wildfire.

One of the major causes of forest fires in Pennsylvania is debris burning. Under Purdens 32 Section 344A, a wildfire started accidentally (any flammable material) in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, is punishable under Pa. State laws as a misdemeanor of the third degree with a fine of not more than $500.00 and/or imprisonment in the County jail of not more than 1 one year.

Under Purdens 32 Section 344B, a wildfire started intentionally in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is punishable by a $5,000.00 fine and imprisonment in the State penitentiary of not more than 10 ten years.

Tinicum Township has an enforceable Fire Prevention Ordinance (Ord. #18), a Nuisance Ordinance (Ord. #1) and Township Zoning Ordinance Section 803, which can be referred to if the smoke is bothering neighboring residents.
