J

son was severely mistreated by the general he was assigned to. Henry wrote a letter to George Washington and George assigned the son to GW's own teams. The son did very well the rest of the war.

11. New Business. Kathryn asked that items coming into the township for review be circulated to the Historical Commission for potential historical perspective. Ethan suggested documenting some of the older properties without infringing on people's properties. Discussed the structural issues of the Pipersville library and discussed the Rock Ridge Chapel. The Isaac Stover house across from the Stover Mill is being meticulously restored. The burned barn on Geigle Hill Road has been restored beautifully.
